

PLEASE: DO maintain the existing media cross-ownership caps. DO NOT relax the protections we now have. We are in enough trouble already. Prime example: The newspapers in the town where I live, Ashland, Oregon and the larger city, Medford, 12 miles away - are now under the same ownership. We have only one source of printed information, so there is no hope of getting two sides of ANY issue!

Emily A. Parker